

Online ADI-R Booster Workshop

Dates: July 10th, July 31st, & August 1st, 2020

UCSF Center for ASD and NDDs
Phone: 415-502-1072
Email: ASDtraining@ucsf.edu

The purpose of the online ADI-R Booster Training Workshop is to provide training to those who are already using the ADI-R for clinical and/or research purposes and would like additional practice and calibration. This online workshop will consist of a live ADI-R administration via Zoom video conference. The live interview will be followed by scoring discussion, current research issues, and a question & answer session with the ADI-R trainer.

We will also cover special topics! (Please see below to specify special topics of interest.)
